Dear Friends,

God Bless you all and Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas. I think of you often and pray for you all. You have enabled us to be on the "Front Lines," here in Memphis for almost thirty-five years. Tens of thousands of people have asked Jesus to save them, through the years. Although we are not seeing hundreds of professions per year like we used to, we did have nineteen precious people ask Jesus to save them last week. "The fishing is still good in the hood."

In addition to seeing folks saved, we are training and mentoring those whom the Lord gives us. I have been doing quite a bit of counseling lately. One couple came in determined to get a divorce and left holding hands and espousing their love for one another. Their five children need both parents at home.

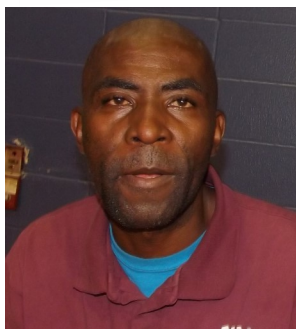

Sadly we said "See ya later," to our old friend and brother, James (Pop) Payne. He had been a fixture here at the ICOC for thirty years. We already miss him immensely. He had the gift of service and he was faithful to exercise it. Thank you to all, who contributed to the expense of his funeral. Miracle Baptist was his family, so we took care of him. Praise God for the privilege.

We have done quite a bit of work here at the Church. Thank you to our friends from Collierville Methodist, who donated several days of labor to help us with that. I knew how to do the work, I just couldn't because of old injuries. I stood around and acted "Bossy."

The crowds here at the ICOC on basketball nights, are immense. We have so many guys coming in and they are so thankful to you for giving them a safe place to play ball and hear the Word. We have mentoring opportunities each night. What a blessing. Men who grew up and got saved down here are now bringing their children in "to get some of what they got as a child." I am so proud of them. Working and taking care of their families. For some the cycle of poverty has been broken.

We are not through. There is much work to do. Our soul-winning base is shrinking and our financial base is retiring and for some going home to Heaven. This past year was lean on both soul-winners and financial support. The Auction "Fund-a-Mission" brought in half of what we received the year before. Would you pray that God will send folks to give, pray and go; People, who have a heart for the poor folks in Memphis. God is using you to make a difference, here in "the Hood." God Bless you all and Thank you so much.
